HOW IT WORKS

There's more to apprenticeships than meets the eye. Under a workforce management arrangement, you employ the apprentice and MIGAS provides specialist support akin to an external HR business partner.

It's a cost effective, streamlined solution to assist with managing all aspects of Australian Apprentice training contract obligations. It's about helping you focus on developing the apprentice while we ensure all obligations around training, compliance, progression, competency, and completion are achieved.

SERVICE RATES

Our rates are among the most competitive in the industry. Each service tier is packaged as fixed fee and invoiced monthly for each employee.

Bring our expertise on board for as little as $50 per week with preferential rates for large cohorts.

TWO SUPPORT OPTIONS

Choose from two service level tiers to support your onsite team. Our Managed Service offering provides an increased level of ongoing support and coordination ideal for larger apprentice cohorts, or when your internal team is at capacity.

The eApprentice offering provides upfront direction and useful tools to ensure compliance, keep you on track, and your apprentice performing on-the-job and off-the-job at training.

We bring 35 years' experience to recruiting and managing trades apprentices.

If you're considering employing an apprentice or trainee talk to us about our end-to-end recruitment services for single or group intakes.
